PEDCO, LLC Field Test Review (FTR)

What is the FTR Program?

The FTR is a product review and marketing program in which qualified customers participate in evaluating products for PEDCO., LLC

How does the Program work?

Qualified customers will receive new products to field test and evaluate on their own bikes and provide PEDCO.,LLC with a written evaluation of the products. In addition, the FTR person will provide field demonstrations and technical information about the products to other motorcycle enthusiasts.

The data from the evaluations will be collected, compiled and published either in print or on the web site. The products will be given a rating. The Summary rating will range from "Highly Recommended", "Recommended" or "Not recommended". In addition, the scoring for each product will be divided into 3 categories, quality, functionality and ease of use.

What types of products are included in the program?

All motorcycle products, accessories and apparel that are available to PEDCO, LLC or that are made available by any manufacturers of motorcycle products and accessories that supply PEDCO, LLC with products to be marketed, tested and evaluated.

Some examples are motorcycle alarms systems, GPS Navigation Systems and High Tech Apparel.

Who is eligible to participate join the Program?

Any American Citizen age 21 and above who has a valid motorcycle license and currently owns a motorcycle and meets all of the qualifications required by PEDCO.,LLC
